

City of Simpsonville Proclamation

Whereas, the government of the City of Simpsonville celebrates our local small businesses and the contributions they make to our local economy and community; and

Whereas, according to the United States Small Business Administration, there are 34.7 million small businesses in the United States, small businesses represent 99.7% of firms with paid employees, small businesses are responsible for 61.1% of net new jobs created since 1995, and small businesses employ 45.9% of the employees in the private sector in the United States, and

Whereas, 68 cents of every dollar spent at a small business in the U.S. stays in the local community and every dollar spent at small businesses creates an additional 48 cents in local business activity as a result of employees and local businesses purchasing local goods and services; and

Whereas, 59% of U.S. consumers aware of Small Business Saturday shopped or ate at a small, independently owned retailer or restaurant on Small Business Saturday in 2023; and

Whereas, Simpsonville, South Carolina, supports our local businesses that create jobs, boost our local economy, and preserve our communities; and

Whereas, advocacy groups, as well as public and private organizations, across the country have endorsed the Saturday after Thanksgiving as Small Business Saturday.

Now, therefore, I, Paul Shewmaker, Mayor of the City of Simpsonville, do hereby proclaim November 30, 2024, as

and urge the residents of our community, and communities across the country, to support small businesses and merchants on this day – celebrating its 15th year in 2024 – and to Shop Small throughout the year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,
I have set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Simpsonville to be affixed this 1st day of November in the year of our Lord 2024.
